A Taste of Our Local Suppliers

Tim Jones Family Butchers – Killarney, Co. Kerry

A trusted name in Killarney for generations, Tim Jones is a family-run butcher known for top-quality meats and strong ties to local farmers.

www.timjones.ie

Fenit Fruit & Veg – Fenit, Co. Kerry

A local supplier delivering fresh, seasonal produce to kitchens across Kerry. Their commitment to local growers ensures we always have the best veg on the plate.

www.fenitveg.ie

We take great pride in sourcing from our trusted local producers and suppliers wherever possible. However, due to seasonal and supply chain availability, substitutions may occasionally be necessary. In such cases, we remain committed to maintaining the highest quality and standards in every dish we serve.

Spillane's Seafood – Killarney, Co. Kerry

A family-run fishmonger bringing the freshest Atlantic catch to Killarney. We use Spillane's for our cod, smoked haddock, salmon and more.

www.spillaneseafoods.com

McCarthy Butcher – Kanturk, Co. Cork

Jack and his son, Tim McCarthy, the fifth generation of butcher in the family to run the shop. The blackpudding has received acclaim from the Brotherhood of the Knights of the Blackpudding.

www.smccarthysofkanturk.ie

We get our beans from the legends at Blue Butterfly Coffee Roasters in County Waterford – a small team of lovely humans who live and breathe coffee. They roasting everything by hand at their HQ using a seriously impressive Giesen roaster.

They care about every step – from bean to cup – and it shows. Whether you like your coffee rich and punchy or smooth and mellow, there's something for you.

We're proud to serve it, and even prouder to drink it.
